Adult Classes

January 2020

Sundays 9:00 – 10:00 AM

The Beatitudes

WC FH Bays 1&2, TBA,
(9 sessions ending March 1)

Jesus wanted the people of His day to understand His Father's kingdom is dramatically different. So He opens the "Sermon on the Mount" with statements that startle the ear, and this class will discover the workings of God's eternal domain, Heaven.

The Mysterious Prophecy of Isaiah 53

FLC 104, Ron McQuinn
(13 sessions ending March 29)

Exploring the ancient prophecy of Isaiah 53 is one of the most fascinating studies one can make. Some say it reveals the story of the Bible in just a few verses. At the heart of the mystery is identifying the one called "My Servant." Join Ron in this fast-paced class of discovery.

Moms at Heart

FLC 115, Multiple Teachers
(January - December)

This class is for women to come together to nurture relationships with each other, and grow closer to God. Classes will focus on refueling women and fellowship. All women are welcome to come and join us.

The Multiplication Factor: Church Growth

Library FLC 211, Dan Payne
(26 sessions ending June 28)

This class is devoted to approaching personal evangelism as it was practiced by the Christians of the early Church. Extensive study of the Book of Acts will provide direction to practical applications.

Growing the Fruits of the Spirit

FLC 212, Multiple Teachers
(17 sessions ending April 26)

Donny Dillon and multiple teachers / Using Galatians 5.22-23 as the basic text, this class will explore the way the Spirit manifests Himself in the lives of Christians today, with special application toward the issues of college students and post-grads.

Wednesdays 7:00 – 8:00 PM

The Book of Job

WC FH Bays 1&2, John Bell
(21 sessions ending May 27)

Why does God permit suffering? The book of Job points us toward the answer. In the midst of his frustrations, disappointments and confusion during his lifetime we begin to see the real power of suffering, for bad and for good. Join John as he continues this study from last year and ultimately completes the story of the life of Job.

A "Gospel-Shaped" Mercy

FLC, Ron McQuinn
(13 sessions ending March 25)

Christians have rightly been suspicious of churches that give themselves to political and social campaigns and seem to lose focus on the Gospel at the same time. But the Gospel tells us that God is concerned for the relief of poverty, hunger, and injustice. This class will help churches work out how to fulfill this part of our Christian call.

ABC's of a Godly Heart

FLC 115, Multiple Teachers
(25 sessions ending June 24) -- (Women Only)

God wants you to know Him. The Psalms are a window that looks deeply into His heart—a place where He reveals His purpose for your life. Journey through the Psalms—songs of praise, adoration, deliverance, and redemption—and learn how to reflect the glory of God through a more intimate and fulfilling walk with Him.

Nine Attributes of a Man

FLC 104, TBA
(10 sessions ending March 11) -- (Men Only)

In looking at the life of Jesus, we find countless attributes and commitments that show us how to live as a man faithful to the Father's call. If you are a man looking for true masculinity, consider whether these nine commitments (among many others) would make a significant impact on your masculinity if actively applied in your role as a leader, employee, husband, father, and son.

Who's Your One?

FLC Gym, Multiple Teachers
(4 sessions ending January 29)

One-on-one evangelism, including friendship outreach and being a genuine Christian meeting the needs in the lives of others.
